

Community of Poets & Artists Press

A small not-for-profit press, co-edited by Susan and Philip Bennetta, publishing the work of new and established voices, since 1994. The press is run by artists who themselves make art, artists' books and collections. Other imprints include Pamphlet Poets and Poem by Post.

Pamphlet poet series

Pamphlet Poets is an original series of hand-sewn collections, in the pamphlet style of the 20's & 30's, by contemporary poets. They are available directly from our small press or from any good bookshop to order. Many of these special collections include artwork.

Poem by post

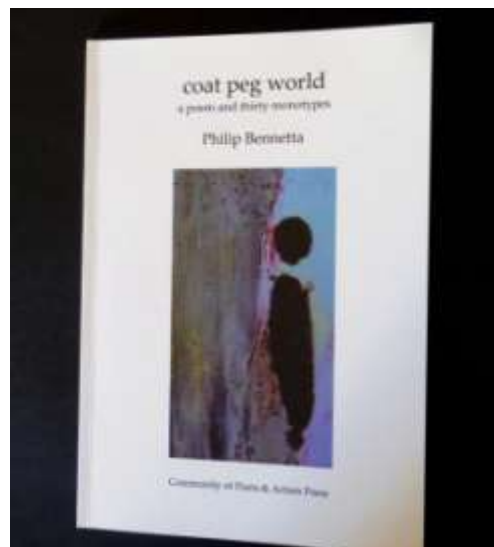

Poem by Post is a collaborative project involving a contemporary poet and an artist, with one invited to respond to the work of the other. Limited editions of these traditionally made pamphlets are the creative outcome and these unique publications are available exclusively to the artist and poet for their own use.

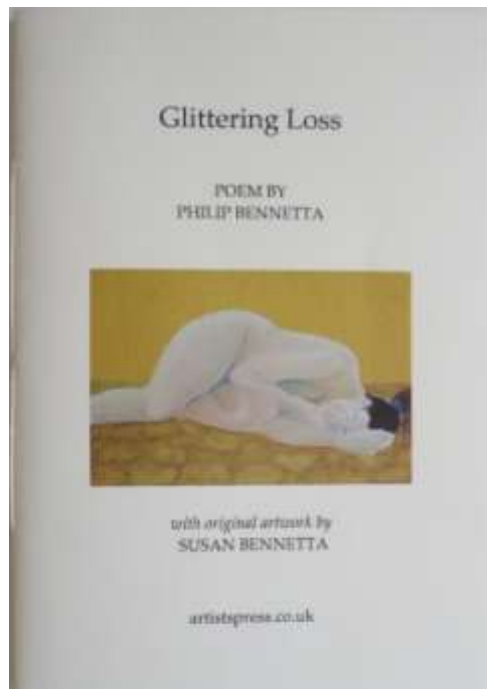

Artists' books, collections and project publications

A selection of work is illustrated below and for a complete listing of books, publications and collaborative projects please contact by email:

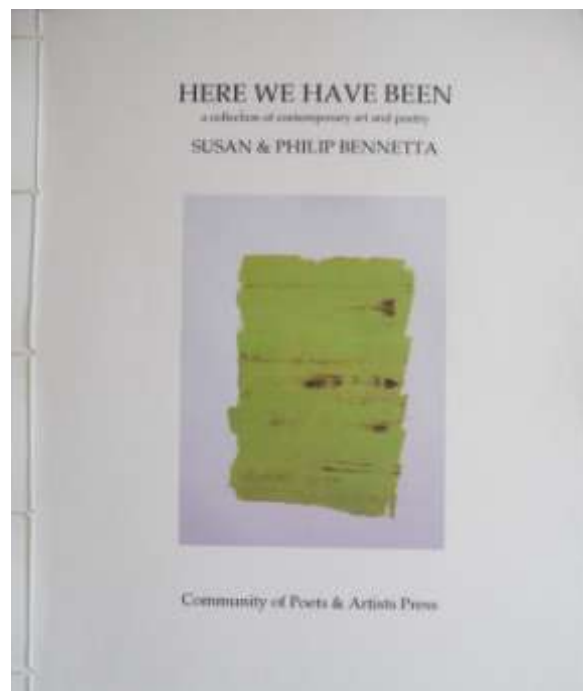

bennetta.artco@gmail.com

recent publications

Glittering Loss Poem by Post project, Philip & Susan Bennetta, 2013

Here We Have Been Artists' Book Susan & Philip Bennetta, 2013

66 Woodcuts Artists' Book Philip Bennetta

examples of hand-sewn publications from our small press